

Connect ~ Flourish ~ Thrive

What Does Lower Similkameen Community Services Society Do?

Lower Similkameen Community Services Society (LSCSS) is a non-profit, registered charitable organization, that provides support programs and counselling to people of all ages within our collective community. LSCSS has programs that assist at all stages of life from Infant Development to Child & Youth Mental Health, from Victim Services to Violence Prevention, from Better at Home to Affordable and Assistance Housing, and many more.

Mission

LSCSS provides diverse and inclusive services to meet the evolving needs of our community, enhancing the well-being of people by creating opportunity and supporting independence.

Vision

A community where there is opportunity for all to flourish and thrive.

What are the Benefits of Membership with LSCSS?
